 Series: Freedom!
 Title: Adopted
 Scripture: Galatians 4: 1-11

I. SLAVERY

In ancient times, much was made of a boy becoming a man. Not so for a slave. He had no (_____); no (_____); no (_____); no (_____) in anything. Even those given responsibility for taking care of the child/children was still a slave.

As long as the heir is a child, he is no different than a slave though he is the owner of everything. Until he comes of age, he is treated no differently than a (_____).

Paul's point all along: The Law is (_____); it is slavery.

II. SONSHIP

What does it mean "fullness of time?"

1. The time was right (_____).
2. The time was right (_____).
3. The time was right (_____).

"Born of a woman"- God in flesh came to live among us.

"Born under the Law"- born into Jewish family and subject to the Law

"Adopted"- combination of two words: "son" and "a placing." Our relationship to God is more than positional:
