I. THE MEANING OF ADOPTION

Justification a legal term meaning “to be found not guilty.”

Sanctification means “to be set apart for a specific purpose.”

Redemption means “to be bought from the auction block.”

Reconciliation means “to be made friends again.”

Propitiation means “all which needed to be done Christ accomplished.”

Redemption is (_____); Reconciliation is (_____); Propitiation is (_____).

We receive all the right and privileges of being part of God’s family. One huge difference: Unlike earthly fathers, who are sometimes prone to anger and harshness, God is a perfect Father. God’s design for us can be seen in Romans 8:28-29.

Two truths underscored by Galatians 4 and Romans 8:

1. We have been permanently (_____) through the adoption in God’s family.
2. We enjoy the privilege of an (_____) with the Father.

II. THE MESSAGE OF ADOPTION

“I will welcome you, and I will be a Father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to me, says the Lord Almighty.”
 2 Cor. 6:17b-18

Adoption gives us several important thoughts:

- 1) It is the highest privilege that the gospel offers.
- 2) The entire Christian life must be understood in terms of it.

A few thoughts to consider: (Knowing God by J.I.Packer)

1. Our adoption shows the greatness of (_____).
2. Our adoption shows us the glory of the (_____).
3. Our adoption gives us the key to under the ministry of the (_____).
