Title: The Wonder of it All
Scripture: Psalm 139

I. THE WONDER OF GOD

“The fairest thing we can experience is the mysterious. He who knows it not, can no longer wonder, no longer feel amazements, is as good as dead, a snuffed-out candle.” Einstein

One of the key components of these verses is God’s (omniscience). So what does God know about us?

1. He knows what we (_____).
2. He knows what we (_____).
3. He knows where (_____).
4. He knows what we (_____).
5. He knows what we (_____).

God is either No Where or God is Now Here. This is called God’s (_____).

II. THE WONDER OF HIS CREATION

God is also (_____). See verses 13-18. None is profound as the (_____).

God is seen as the (_____). See also Jeremiah 1:5

In verses 17-18 David reflects on the abundance of (_____).

What should this cause in us?

1. It should (_____) us.
2. It should (_____) us.
3. It should (_____) us to live for God.
