Title: The Value of Who You Are
Text: Psalm 78:72 ; Matthew 25:36-46; Mark 9:35

I. WHAT YOU SEE

“Leadership consists of two ingredients: strategy and character. If you must do one without the other, do without the strategy.” Norman Schwarzkopf

“A leader is not just someone who takes charge. A leader is someone who takes charge and does the right thing. It’s not enough to make a decision; it needs to be the right decision resulting from strong character. It is not enough to take action; it needs to be the right action, prompted by strong character.” Pat Williams in Leadership Excellence

Character is the key to (_____) and if you have a
(_____), you can’t help but influence people.

Three false/illegitimate sources of influence:

- 1. (_____)
- 2. (_____)
- 3. (_____)

II. WHAT YOU GET

What, to you, is the single most important characteristic of a leader?

“Leadership is (_____), and (_____) is sacrifice.”

There are several motivations for serving:

- 1) (_____). Needs to go beyond observation.
- 2) (_____). Guilt-driven service the opposite of Jesus-driven service.
- 3) (_____). “Community service hours”
- 4) (_____). Prideful service is never private service; it’s public service.

NEXT WEEK: I’m Thankful for His Provision- Luke 17:11-19
