June 3, 2018 Ryan preaching
 Theme: Uncharted
 Series: Courage
 Title: The Battle is the Lord's
 Scripture: Joshua 5:13 – 6:27

I. God Keeps His Word: Three Promises Fulfilled

- 1.) (_____) descendants inherit the Land promised in Gen 15
- 2.) Rahab and her family are (_____)
- 3.) The Lord promises to deliver Jericho to the Israelites and does so

II. Strange Strategies

J. Huffman: “God actually goes out of His way to choose (_____) to do His will.” God uses absurd means because it requires (_____) on the part of His people. Using absurd means produces a (_____) amongst His people.

III. Devoted to the Lord

A few comforting reminders:

- 1.) God of the OT and God of the NT are one and the same!
- 2.) The incarnation – Christ inserted himself into this messed up world! He did not remain far away but entered the fray.
- 3.) God’s judgement is always consistent and fair.
- 4.) God is also the God of grace – in the OT. Rahab is the perfect example.

For more information about the nature of God and judgement and suffering, pick up a good apologetics book (like The 10 Most Common Objections to Christianity by Alex McFarland or Evidence that Demands a Verdict by Josh and Sean McDowell) or a book that addresses the judgement of God directly (like Tim Keller’s Walking with God through Pain and Suffering or God’s Glory in Salvation through Judgement by James Hamilton Jr.).
