Two observations to make:

1. While Jesus presents that two servants are involved, He is not at all interested in their (_____). The point we need to remember is every follower of Christ is a (_____).
2. We are (_____).

Several thoughts come out of this parable:

- 1) This is a (_____).
- 2) This is an unusually (_____).
- 3) The wedding night is filled with (_____).
- 4) Historically, this is (_____) of the wedding feast.
- 5) The groom was (_____).

The three parables are braided together to give us an understanding of what it means to be () as we await the ().

What does this parable teach us?

1. The wealthy man clearly represents (_____).
2. The three servants represent (_____).
